A Gift of Intentions

If you would like to make a donation to the church "In Memory Of..." or "In Honor Of..." someone special, consider the Wine, Hosts or Sanctuary Light in his or her name. The monthly donation for Wine is just $40 and the Hosts are $25. Sanctuary Lamps burn in memory or honor of your loved one for $10 per week. A special card can be sent to the family notifying them of your donation. This is a great way to honor someone when a Mass date is not available. If you have any questions, call the Central Office at 716.487.0125.

The next Coffee Hour at St. James Church will be Sunday, June 23rd after the 8am Mass. Please join us in the downstairs hall for fellowship, fresh donuts and some great coffee! Coffee Hour is being sponsored by Knights of Columbus & St. Vincent de Paul Society.

We need your help! Do you like to work with the youth?

Faith Formation and Youth Group are in need of several people to help with our programs. We need teachers, substitute teachers, youth group leaders, etc. The Diocese now requires that anyone over the age of 18 must take the Virtus training to work with our youth. This training will be held on June 19 at 6pm at Sacred Heart Parish Center. It is a one-time training, however you do need to do an online reading once a month after the training. The online reading will only take you about 5 minutes to do. This is a very small commitment to keep our youth safe. Please take the time to come. You have to register on line at: virtusonline.org/virtus/ Thank you for helping our youth!

Vocation News...

On this Father's Day, we honor the vocation of marriage & early fatherhood. For unmarried men, might God be asking you to be a spiritual father?

To learn more, call Contact Fr. Dave Baker at 716.847.5535

"Know, O Christian, that the Mass is the holiest act of religion. You cannot do anything to glorify God more, nor profit your soul more, than by devoutly assisting at it, and assisting as often as possible." —St. Peter Julian Eymard

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation.

May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering. May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers, but still mentor and guide with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us, but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

Festival Corner "Brought to you by the Festival Committee!"

Our Italian Festival is fast approaching!

SAINT ROMUALD (c. 951-1027)

“God so loved the world,” declares John 3:16. “Do not love the world,” warns 1 John 2:15. The “world” to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God’s children all. The “world” to flee: “sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life” (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald’s conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God’s world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald’s journey resonate with all who find life more maze than superhighway. Both the hermit’s solitary struggle and community life’s unique challenges shaped Romuald’s legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California—in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe—integrate Romuald’s experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

SAINT JOHN FISHER (1469-1535) AND SAINT THOMAS MORE (1477-1535)

From Robert Bolt’s classic A Man For All Seasons to Showtime’s edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household—four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him “Patron of Statesmen and Politicians,” citing More’s generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More’s decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: “I die the King’s good servant, but God’s first.” Alone among England’s bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII’s divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: “Don’t bother sending Fisher’s red hat here; I’ll send Fisher’s head to Rome!” Whose “good servants” are we first? Isn’t a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone?

—Peter Scagnelli

Reflections

Dust, Seeds and Flowers

I stopped to stare and take in all that my child is today, that which I often overlook - the innocence of today, the unknowns of tomorrow. I think of all the potential inside, waiting to flourish, to serve the Lord above all else, God-willing.

How delicate is life in the womb. That soul can be anything, so infinite the possibilities!

As Catholics, it is our duty to invest in our youth, but those clearly in front of us as well as the unborn. We must be there to each and guide them what is just. I pray my children will find the Lord’s narrow way, striving for Him alone and that which is eternal, rather than the distractions of this temporary world.

Meanwhile, many adults, including myself, struggle with humility. I shouldn’t have to do this or that, I’ve worked too hard, I’m more important than that. And on the other hand, many struggle with self-confidence. I’m not good enough. I’m a nobody. The mustard seed parable reminds us of the significance of littleness. Something small has the greatest potential for growth, and ultimately becomes something magnificent.

This is one of the most common themes of the Bible. Being asked to go forth and proclaim the Kingdom, we begin as a speck of dust but have infinite power to grow, all because of God’s grace

The good God does not need years to accomplish His work of love in a soul; one ray from His Heart can, in an instant, make His flower bloom for eternity...* (St. Therese of Lisieux)
