All gift donations due to the church by Noon, December 20th.

Christmas is coming soon and St. James Parish is participating in the 2024 collection of new unwrapped children's toys for our local *TOYS
FOR TOTS* toy-drive this *Christmas!

HOPE IS KEY...

There are so many issues facing families today, and the gift of a shiny new toy at Christmas can be just one small way to provide hope. Many children will have a merry Christmas and something to open under the tree due to this year's campaign.

It is heartwarming to know that the community supports those in need during the holiday season.

All donations stay in Chautauqua County!

For the past 23 years in Chautauqua County, Toys For Tots has coordinated the US Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots program and provided toys to thousands of less fortunate children in our community. Last year, through the generous donations received and the many volunteer efforts, we were able to provide toys to over 5,148 children in 1,850 families.

ABOUT TOYS: Toys for Tots prefers not to accept realistic looking weapons or gifts with food.

Please place your unwrapped donated children's toys in the box provided in the church vestibule.

Please have all gift donations to the church by Noon, December 20th.

Thanks and Merry Christmas!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Years ago, the trick question on religion quizzes would be to name all the liturgical colors, or the colors of the vestments worn at Mass. Rose is a color seldom seen, used at most two days a year. Today, "Gaudete Sunday," is one of those days. The name of the day is drawn from an opening verse in the old Latin Mass texts: Gaudete is Latin for "Rejoice!" This year's Gospel certainly reflects that mood as Elizabeth feels her infant within her leaping for joy at the presence of Mary. Mary's visit to her aged cousin is an act of compassion between women, as two kinswomen who are bearing children into the world share their joy.

Some churches retain the custom of having the priest wear rose vestments today, and many will use a rose candle in the Advent wreath. Violet is the official color for Advent and Lent, but many parishes employ different hues for each season, trying to keep them distinct. In medieval times, dye was costly, and poor parishes used unornamented plain cloth for vestments. Dyes were expensive and some colors, particularly purple, difficult to achieve. In England, purple dye was made from mollusks, yielding at best a deep indigo or blue and not the desired violet. Thus, the color of Advent in the British Isles has long been a deep blue, reminding many people of Mary's presence at the heart of the Advent mystery. That theology is largely unplanned: it's all because of the clams! James Field,

The Star Christmas Tree at Sacred Heart & Our Lady of the Snows

All stars represent a needy Child of God. The stars tell you if it is a boy or girl and also information on what they would wear and need for Christmas. You don't need to buy everything listed on the star. These are only suggestions.

Please wrap and return all gifts to the Sacred Heart parish center before

Monday, December 16th.

Please fill in your name and telephone number next to the number of the stars that you take.

Please ATTACH the stars to the outside of the wrapped gift.

The gifts need to be returned to the Sacred Heart Parish Center by DECEMBER 16TH so the gifts can be delivered.

Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Sacred Heart Church Invites You to Come Decorate With Us

We will be decorating Sacred Heart Church in Lakewood on December 22 after the 9:00am Mass. Please join us as we prepare our church for the birth of our Savior. All ages and skill levels are welcome!

REFLECTIONS

Third Sunday of Advent

Not Ready? No Problem!

While Advent is a beautiful time to prepare for the coming of the Lord, we often get so caught up in all the things we do to prepare for Christmas that we forget Advent all together. The readings remind us that in spite of the stress we may feel thinking about how close Christmas is, we are called to rejoice for the Lord is near.

The stress we feel may be from fear: Fear that I won't get the shopping done by Christmas, fear that people won't like the gifts I bought, or fear that I forgot someone that should be on my list. But did you ever notice how much easier it is when you have someone to shop with you, or write the Christmas cards, or decorate the tree? "Shout for joy...fear not!" says the prophet Zephaniah in the first reading. (Zeph 3:14) He tells us the Lord is not coming to punish us for waiting till the last minute to put up the tree. The prophet says the Lord is in our midst, we are not alone. "He has turned away your enemies" (Zeph 3:15), enemies like fear, doubts, and loneliness.

And as if that wasn't good enough, he says that the Lord rejoices over us! How many times have you wondered if you could ask the Lord for help? Zephaniah reminds us that the Lord is happy to help. And St. Paul says the same thing in the second reading: "Have no anxiety at all...make your requests known to God." (Phil 4:6) That is where Advent comes in. We can look forward to the Lord's presence in our lives. We can be confident of his love for us. That is why faith and hope are central to the theme of Advent. Our faith in God's love for us gives us hope that he will support us in our weakness and fill us with the joy he has over us. —Tom Schmidt

To Be A Community

The people ask John the Baptist in earnest what they should do in response to his message. In the verses before today's Gospel, John is preaching a message of repentance and if I'm honest, a bit of fear thrown in. He is challenging the status quo with strong language, calling the Pharisees "vipers" and asserting that God is ready and waiting to cut down whoever isn't producing good fruit in their lives.

"What should we do?" The crowds, tax collectors, and even soldiers ask John. To each group, John gives a different answer. However, every answer is rooted in the same basic principle - be a community.

John tells the crowds to share their food and clothing with whomever among them is lacking. A community takes care of each person's basic needs. It requires that everyone consider the needs of others before their own wants and needs.

John tells the tax collectors to stop overcharging people. He is insisting on selflessness, rather than selfishness. Notice that John doesn't tell them to stop in their profession, but to practice it with integrity and honesty. There is no need to be greedy, especially if the community is practicing John's first assertion to take care of the basic needs of every individual.

Finally, John tells the soldiers to be content in their station and position. Do not flaunt your authority or use it to abuse others. Again, John doesn't tell them to desert their positions, but to fulfill their tasks well and with proper purpose. In a community, each person has something to contribute and the capacity to do it well. Some will be in authority over others, but this does not give them the right to abuse the privilege of leadership.

Today, John the Baptist gives us three foundational elements of a community built upon God's principles. We must be generous, considering the needs of others. We must be honest, contributing our part and not seeking to grasp what is not ours. We must be content, recognizing that what we have is from God and that we are stewards of His goodness and love. —Kate Taliaferro

Sacred Heart Faith Formation Class Parish Family Advent Gathering

The Sacred Heart Faith Formation classes were at St. James church this past weekend, for the Parish Family Advent Gathering. It was a very well attended event! Students and their families (96 people!) enjoyed a short video entitled "The Shepherd" which showed the birth of Jesus as announced to them by the angels as it is written in Luke 2. The students also enjoyed an Advent based scavenger hunt! This was so much fun!

THANK YOU!

St. Patrick Parish

The Parish drive at St. Patrick raised $3,054 this year. So far we have refinished the front door, filled the hole actually caused by water not the woodchuck. Fr. Marcin installed a security system in the front and back of the church. We thank you for being so generous this year!

Inclement Weather Policy

As winter approaches, please be reminded that if Jamestown schools close due to weather, the Central Office will also be closed. On such days, scheduled Masses will NOT be open to parishioners and will instead be celebrated privately by the Pastor.

A Call to Vocations

Third Sunday of Advent – December 15, 2024

John the Baptist explained his actions, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.” Today’s priests do the same: they baptize with water and tell us to watch for the coming of Jesus in glory.
